CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

WEDNESDAY, Dec. 29, 1802.

Mr. Randolph said, that on examining the rules of the house he found two to which he wished to draw their attention. One in the following words: "When the reading of a paper is called for, and the same is objected to by any member, it shall be determined by a vote of the house." This rule had yesterday been decided (and in his opinion correctly) to apply only to papers already in the possession of the house, and not to those which had never before been heard. But, sir, said Mr. R. I find another rule directing that all petitions, memorials and other papers addressed to the house, shall be presented by the Speaker, or by a member in his place, and a brief statement of the contents thereof shall be verbally made by the introducer, &c. And wherefore? That the house may not be betrayed into the reading of that which it might be indecorous in them to hear. Conceiving then that they should be guided in the interpretation of their rules by the same principle which governed courts of justice in the construction of a law; "the adopting of such an interpretation as would give meaning and efficacy (if possible) to every part of the instrument; he had yesterday been compelled, however reluctantly, to differ from an authority eminently entitled to his respect. Since, whilst he concurred in the construction given to the rule which he had first read, could not perceive that the right of the house to refuse to be put into possession of improper matter was, thereby, at all affected. Otherwise the provision contained in the second rule was rendered altogether nugatory.

But since it had been adjusted that any communication however voluminous, any petition however frivolous; any memorial however foreign to their jurisdiction; any paper however it might insult the dignity, however it might derogate from the honor of the house must, if required by a single member, of necessity be read. He conceived it his duty to endeavour to relieve the house from the embarrassment of being compelled to listen to a libel upon itself. To refuse which was, as he conceived, a right inherent in every deliberative assembly. He had drawn his proposed amendment in such terms as to leave untouched the sacred right of petition. A right which no one prized more dearly, and no one was more disposed to cherish and defend than himself. This important privilege he believed would not be affected by the resolution which he was about to offer. Since where redress of grievances was really sought, the petitioners had always the choice of inoffensive terms in which to express themselves, and nothing was more easily discernable than a petition whose object was the benefit of those preferring it, and one which was made a cover to insult those to whom it was preferred. He concluded with moving the following amendment to the rules of the house to be inserted after that which he had last read.

"That if any petition, memorial or other paper, so presented, shall, in the opinion of any member, contain matter insulting to the dignity or derogatory from the honor of the house, the reading of such paper shall, if objected to, be determined by a vote of the house."

Mr. Eustis observed, that by the decision of yesterday, it appeared that every paper presented to the house must be read. If that decision was correct the house had tied itself down by its own rules, and subjected itself to the necessity of hearing every paper offered, however long, or however improper.

Mr. Eustis said, it appeared to him necessary that this evil should be remedied. But he could not think it necessary to confine the power of exclusion to matter derogatory to the dignity of the house. There was other good causes for exclusion; the length of a paper; the manner of its being offensive, or the matter. It appeared to him a first principle that every paper offered was in the possession of the house, and might be read, or not. He had, therefore, wished the resolution of the gentleman from Virginia had been predicated upon a broader principle, viz. that if the reading of any paper should be objected to, the sense of the House should be taken. Suppose, said Mr. Eustis, I present a petition containing 150 pages.

According to the rule, the reading of it cannot be dispensed with but by general consent, not even for other business of the greatest importance. Mr. Eustis then moved the following amendment of Mr. Randolph's resolution:

But if any petition, memorial or other paper, so presented, shall in the reading be objected to by any member, the further reading of the same shall be determined by a vote of the house.

A member enquired, whether as the resolution and amendment went to rescind a standing rule of the house, it was in order to decide upon them the day on which they were offered.

The Speaker declared it was in order, as they did not go to rescind, but only to amend the standing rules.

The resolution and amendment were then taken up for consideration, when, on motion of Mr. Varnum, they were referred to a select committee, consisting of Messrs. Randolph, Eustis, and L. R. Morris.

THURSDAY, Dec. 30, 1802

Mr. Claiborn presented the petition of Sampson Henderlon, paying pecuniary relief. Referred to the committee of Claims.

Mr. Mitchell moved a resolution for the appointment of a committee for enquiring into the expediency of amending and revising the several acts respecting patents & copy rights, to report thereon by bill or otherwise.

Before offering the resolution, Mr. Mitchell observed that his object was to simplify the existing statutes respecting patents, by comprising them in one act.

Resolution agreed to without a division.

DOCUMENTS

ACCOMPANYING THE

Communication of the PRESIDENT OF THE U. STATES, TO BOTH HOUSES OF CONGRESS.

Made the 15th day of December, 1802.
(Concluded.)

Extract of letters from James Simpson, Esq. Consul of the U. States, for Morocco, resident at Tangier, to the Secretary of State.

From No. 49.

Dated at Tangier, 3d Sept. 1802.

"With this I have the honor of transmitting a copy of the letter I wrote the minister on the 1st instant. It will afford me much satisfaction to know, what I have said on the subject of the Emperor's pretensions, meets the approbation of his excellency the President. I have stated only facts, and thought best to reserve a copy of my letter of the 18th of July, 1795, to the then minister, and that of Muley Soliman's to the President on the 18th August following, as vouchers more proper to be exhibited in support of my arguments, and in opposition to what farther may be alleged on the part of this government, on subject of what they thought fit to advance rather than now."

"The business of bringing the Tripoli ship from Gibraltar, under the Emperor's flag, has been again agitated, and a general application made by Alcayde Hahash to the consuls here, for passports for her as belonging to his majesty, to sail from hence for Tripoli: I positively refused mine on these terms, nor do I find any has been granted; but it is certain, men have been ordered from Tetuan for her, and that she is to hoist colours at Gibraltar so soon as the weather will allow these people to get over."

"I have acquainted Captain Campbell of the Adams frigate, that in my private opinion the whole is a colourable business, but if the Emperor announces to the body of the consuls that the ship is his and demands passports accordingly, merely to go to sea and navigate as his, I really do not see how I dare return to contest the matter; or from circumstances to express doubts on what is stated by the sovereign of the country as a fact, without running a great risk of drawing serious resentment on the commerce of the United States."

Copy of a letter from James Simpson, Esq. Consul of the United States, &c. to his excellency Sedy Mohammed Ben Absalem Selawy, secretary of state, &c. &c. &c. Fez.

SIR,

I have received the letter you wrote me, in answer to that I had the honor of addressing his Imperial Majesty, from Tetuan. In that letter you acquainted me it was his Majesty's pleasure I should remain in this place, and exercise the functions of my office as hitherto, as that the necessary orders had been given for that effect to the Governor Alcayde Abderhaman Hahash. Very much desirous of seeing perfect harmony subsist between this empire and the United States of America, and at all times ready to contribute thereto as far as in my power, I did not hesitate at again hoisting their flag on my residence in Tangier, in testimony of the return of peace, and notified to his excellency the President his Majesty's friendly dispositions in that particular.

I also gave the necessary information on the subject, to the commanding officer of the American ships of war stationed in these seas, and granted passports for his Majesty's frigate Mirbaha, and schooner Miribha, that they might put to sea and navigate in safety.

I beg you will have the goodness to represent these matters to his Imperial Majesty, with an assurance from me that he will always experience from the government of the United States, and their agents, an equal readiness to correspond with every disposition his Majesty may be pleased to shew, for maintaining an uninterrupted peace between the two nations. At the same time, speaking with that sincerity that ought to guide the representatives of nations, I cannot help expressing to you with what surprize and concern I observe the farther communication you make me by order of his Imperial Majesty, stating his expectation of annual embassies, accompanied with presents from the United States of America. You are pleased to say it was so stipulated with the late Sed Mahomet Ben Ottoman.

I beg you will tell me where, and by whom such an engagement was made, for I am a perfect stranger to it.

What I know of the matter is, that in the year 1795, when I had the honor of being sent by the government of the United States to his Imperial Majesty, Muley Soliman at Rhabat, for the purpose of congratulating him on his happy accession to the throne of his ancestors, and for obtaining a recognition of the treaty made at Morocco, between his Majesty's father Sedy Mahomet Ben Abdallah, and the United States of America, his Majesty was pleased to ratify the treaty, without any addition or alteration; in fulfillment of his father's engagement, made in the name of the Almighty, that it should continue in full force for fifty years, from the first day of Rhamaden, in the year 1200, on which it was signed.

His Majesty's letter on that occasion to the President of the United States, bearing date the 2d of Zafar 1210, was delivered to me by Sed Mohamet Ben Ottoman, and declared that his majesty was at peace, tranquility, and friendship with America, in the same manner as his father (who is with God) was, to which the government of the United States have ever faithfully corresponded.

By that treaty, there is no stipulation whatever for embassies being sent, or presents made by either the one government or the other, as you will see by the copy of it in Arabic. I delivered it to Sed Mohamet Ben Ottoman, on the 12th July, 1795, at Rhabat. I have seen it my duty to transmit to the government, I have the honour to represent in this country, three several copies of your letter on this important subject, by different conveyances, to guard against miscarriages; and I wait to receive such orders as his excellency the President shall see fit to give on that occasion.

I have lately received information that two seamen, part of the crew of the American ship stranded three years ago near Cape Nun have escaped from the Arabs, and are now with the governor of Taradant. I have to request you will have the goodness to transmit me a letter to that gentleman, directing him to allow these unfortunate people to proceed to Mogadore, in order that my agent there, Mr. Peter Gayer, may send them to their own country. Alcayde Hahash having signified to me his Majesty's wish to be provided with some more American rice, I have given the necessary directions to the consul at Gibraltar to send me a supply, so soon as he can get any of a quality proper for his Majesty's use.

It will at all times afford me particular pleasure to obey such commands from his majesty.

I avail this opportunity of renewing my assurances of respect, and beg you will be persuaded, I am, &c.

Extract of a letter from Consul Simpson, to Consul Gaim, dated Tangier, 27th September, 1802.

"I am happy to tell you that some matters in discussion with this country, have already been so far explained, and misconceptions in the part of this government done away, as leaves me no room to apprehend longer a necessity of having recourse to America for instructions, as every matter is in the fairest train of perfect accommodation, and I hope the gun carriages will come just in time to settle every thing, at least for some years, until they think of something else to ask for."

From No. 35.

"The Bahaw then told me, Muley Soliman looked upon the Americans as no better friends to him than the Dutch and that I must consider myself in the same situation as their consul was at that day. Fully satisfied that the government of the United States had given the most ample and unequivocal proofs of friendship to Muley Soliman, I readily saw that this intimation must proceed either from error, or that it was a prelude to his majesty's making another attempt to get quit of the treaty of 1786, and obtain presents at stipulated periods. On this occasion I beg to refer you to the several letters I had the honor of addressing the department of state, from Rhabat, between the 15th July and 18th August 1795, and to No. 55 of my Gibraltar correspondence, dated 24th September same year. By these you will see a strong attempt to effect this, was at that time made, but that I had the happiness to overcome it, and obtain a recognition of that treaty under well founded motives in appearance, for believing Muley Soliman granted it from a full conviction of its being incumbent on him to do so. Bahaw Hackmawy having stated the American and Batavian governments as standing in the same predicament, in relation to this country, I did not allow him to quit that ground, until I had given him an ample detail of the very early attention the United States paid Muley Saliman, urging that in the choice of the articles chiefly composed their first present, they had given the strongest proof possible of the part they took in his majesty's concerns at that interesting moment, and of their desire that he should overcome the opposition then actually making against his succession. It does not appear necessary to trouble you with all the other arguments at this interview, only to say that having desired another, the Bahaw appointed the 16th, in the evening. We accordingly met, and I laid before him an Arabic translation of the treaty of 1786, with a copy of the Emperors letter, of 18th August 1795, to the President confirming it; also lists of the first and second presents I delivered in the name of the United States to Muley Soliman, at Rhabat, in 1795, and of that I had also the honor of delivering at Miquinez 1793, on the occasion of shewing his majesty my commission as consul; he pursued all these papers with attention, and assured me as in holding these conferences in private, he had given me a proof of his friendship, so I might depend upon experiencing a continuance thereof, and that he would report to his majesty on the occasion. At this second interview not a syllable was said on my retiring from the country, neither have I to this hour heard any more on the subject."

From No. 37.

Dated at Tangier, 20th Feb. 1802

"I am happy in saying that up to the present hour, I have not heard a syllable farther, relative to Bahaw Hackmawy's communications of 14th December; from which I draw a very favourable conclusion."

NORWICH, Dec. 22.

Marks was closely besieged by the brigands, under Gen. Desallines, who is not killed, as mentioned in the New-York papers, Gen. Rochambeau, on whom the command of the French troops has devolved, had proceeded to the Cape and was succeeded at Port-Republican by Gen.
Warren. The whites at Port-Republican have sacrificed many of their negroes for their town safety; as in almost every town captured by the brigands, the negroes have turned against their masters as soon as the place was taken possession of.—The commander of the Polish troops at St. Dominigo had died.

NEW YORK, Dec. 28.

The pilot that brought up the brig Paisley, in 15 days from Cape Francois, informed us that a large fleet of French men of war and transports, with 10 or 15000 troops on board, had just arrived at the Cape. The brig being subject to quarantine, and not visited last evening by the Health-Officer, we were unable to get any further accounts from the Cape, but probably shall in the course of the day.

Extract of a letter from Messrs. Hanberg and Freres of Havre, dated Havre, 15th Nov. 1802.

"This place has now definitely become a free port, where all permitted foreign goods can be landed and stored under the Custom House keys, during the space of twelve months, and exported again to any foreign ports, duty free, and at an easy expence, or sold for home consumption, (on acquitting the duties) if the prices suit.

Colonial articles, and particularly Suggars are now in demand, and getting up daily. West India and Havanna Sugar, 2d and 4th sorts sell 105 to 110 francs per cwt. Yellow Havanna do. 75 to 77 10s livres; brown West India, 67 to 70 to 72 10 do. Coffee has also got up, and is scarce.

Martinique, 29 31 } Duties 4 1
Bourbon, 27 28 } liv. 10s.
Java, 24 25 } per cwt.

An article that is deserving your and friends attention, is upperland Georgia cotton, which sells here very currently at 34 to 35 sous per lb. If it can be obtained with you at 18 or 20 cts. per lb. there can never be any risk to send some here, where any quantity will meet with a ready sale, the consumption being very great in this place. Sea Island do. 42 to 44s West India 44 to 46: Bourbon 46 to 48
—duties 34s per cwt.

Virginia Tobacco of the last growth, sells rather slowly at 75 to 77 10 per cwt.
Good old tobacco would still fetch 82 10 to 85 10 per cwt.

Tallow is demanded and sells as high as 105 10 per cwt.

Take notice our cwt. means 100lb our weight, equal to 108 yours.

Yellow nankeens will be much demanded in the months of March and April, the price will then go from 71 to 71 10s per short piece. Those that are sent here ought to be accompanied with a certificate attesting, that they arrived with you direct from India, by which means near half the duties will be saved."

Extract of another letter dated Paris, November 11.

"I am just informed, that the American claims will yield about 65 per cent.
according to the mode of payment adopted by the government."

Extract of a letter dated Cape Francois, 22d November, 1802, received at Philadelphia.

"All business is suspended, and there is nothing done. We have just warded off an event most terrible. A most infamous plot has burst all at once throughout the colony. The rascals Christophe and Clair-vaux, even as Dessalines, have turned against the government. The two former have lately attacked this city with vigor, and have taken possession of the heights of the Cape, which they have had more than fifteen days. It required all the energy of the inhabitants, and of the few troops remaining with us, to repulse them. The evacuation of the cities of Port Dauphin, and of Port de Paix, as well as of the quarter of Borgne, Port Margot, Plai-fance, Limbe, L'auel, Marmelade, Cara-sol, Jacquez, Limonade, &c. has given us security in this city. General Le Clerc could not bear the chagrin of seeing himself so deceived, as well by the above-named chiefs, as by an infinite number of jacobins, who came with the army, and has fallen after three days sickness. He has happily been succeeded by the brave General Rochambeau, whom we have had here some days. All our hope is placed in him, and already we are sensible of his presence, in enjoying in this city the greatest security. Unfortunately, however, we have not force enough to pursue the brigands, and take possession of the evacuated places, whilst we are unable to take possession of the plains, and on the mountains. In this quarter, we are reduced to this city and to the Mole which has just been attacked, but the details of which we have not yet received. After this recital, you will easily judge what must be the commerce of a city, deprived of cultivation, and where there is no consumption, but by refuge inhabitants, destitute of resources."

To the politeness of capt. Rudd, of the shop Richmond, Messrs. Rossier and Roulet and John M'Pherson and Co. we are indebted for files of the Journal de Commerce; Gazette de France, and several other French papers to the 12th of Nov.
inclusive, but notice nothing material.
They seem pretty generally to be filled with accounts of the brilliant reception the first consul met within his visit to Havre and compliments paid to Madame Bonaparte in her visits to the theatre.

The most interesting relates to Switzerland. The diet of Schwitz no longer exists; the advanced guard of the 27th de-mi brigade had arrived at Zurich, and 1 other demi brigade was on its march for Lucern. The diet was dissolved on the 28th of October, in consequence of the last categorical declaration of gen. Rapp, together with the approach of the French troops towards the place of its sitting. It separated against the will of its president, the famous Aloy's Reading, who would have preferred war.

Before closing its session, it published its rising to the inhabitants of the confederate cantons; in this proclamation it says, that they resign their powers into the hands of their constituent, having been checked in their proceedings by a foreign armed force, and by the influence of extraordinary circumstances; that it does not renounce the right guaranteed to the different cantons, by the treaty of Luneville, it give to Switzerland a suitable constitution; and that it protests against every thing that the inhabitants of Switzerland shall attempt to renounce this right: that is to say, what the Helvetic council, who were to meet at Paris, shall decree, relative to the further constitution of Helvetia.

All the acts of the Helvetic government, since its return to Berne, indicate that it will avoid innovations, and conform strictly to the dispositions of the Proclamation of the first consul; it is perhaps also this motive that has engaged it to confirm in their functions the prefect and the other officers of the administration of the canton of Berne, who were nominated and installed under the provisional government.

Orders are issued to the lord lieutenant of Ireland, to enroll a certain proportion of the fencibles and other corps, with the troops of the line, as appears under the London head of the 5th Nov. Not one word is said about America, or its concerns.

TRACTS OF LAND, viz.

A tract in Loudoun county on Difficult Run, containing 300 acres. The soil well adapted for farming and a considerable proportion of it might easily be improved into meadow. There is a valuable mill-seat on the premises. It lies on the great road from the City of Washington, Alexandria and George Town to Leesburgh and Winchester, nineteen miles from Alexandria, less from the City and George Town and not more than three from the Great Falls of Potomac.

One tract containing 2,481 acres lying in the counties of Loudoun and Fauquier, called Ashby's Bent. The soil is that which is said to be most favorable to Plaster of Paris, well watered by several never failing streams issuing from the mountain—part of this land is cleared and tenanted for lives.

One tract lying part in each of the above counties, containing 885 acres. Chatten's run passes through this tract and gives several valuable mill-seats. The soil is similar to the above tract and equally favorable to Plaster of Paris.

A tract on the South Fork of Bullkin, containing 1600 acres—One also, Head of Evans's Mill, containing 453 acres, and one on Wormley's line, containing 183 acres. These several tracts are in Jefferson (late Berkeley county)—the soil very similar in quality, and particularly adapted to the culture of Tobacco, Hemp, Wheat and Indian Corn, situated twelve miles from Harper's Ferry.

One tract containing 571 acres in Frederick county, this land is in the vicinity of the last mentioned tracts and equally valuable.

One tract in Hampshire county containing 240 acres—this tract, though small is extremely valuable. It lies on Potomac river, about 12 miles above the town of Bath (or Warm Springs) and is in the shape of a horse-shoe, the river running almost round it; two hundred acres of it are rich low grounds, with a great abundance of the largest Walnut and other trees, which with the produce of the soil, might (by means of the improved navigation of the Potomac) be brought to a shipping port with more ease and at a smaller expense, than that which is transported only 30 miles by land.

One third part of 1119 acres in Nansemond county near Suffolk, lying on the road from Suffolk to Norfolk and on Nansemond river—this land is considered extremely valuable by those who are acquainted with it.

One tract in Charles county, Maryland, containing 600 acres—it is very level and lies near the river Potomac.

One tract in Montgomery county, Maryland, containing 519 acres—This land lies about 30 miles above the City of Washington, not far from Kettoc-tan and is good farming land.

One tract in Pennsylvania, containing 234 acres—This land affords an exceeding good stand on Braddock's road from Fort Cumberland to Pittsburg, and a large quantity of natural meadow fit for the scythe. It is distinguished by the appellation of the Great Meadows, where the first action with the French, in the year 1754, was fought.

One other tract on the Mohawk river, State of New-York, containing 1000 acres.

In North West Territory. Three tracts lying on Little Miami, containing 3051 acres.

In Kentucky. On Rough Creek, one tract containing 3000 acres; ditto adjoining 2000 acres. Indisputable titles can be given for the above lands.

Four other unimproved lots on the Eastern Branch, No. 5, 12, 13 and 14, in square 667. These lots are advantageously situated on the water.

ADVERTISEMENT.

THE SUBSCRIBER does, in explicit terms, forbid all persons from hunting or fowling on his land. Besides depriving him of the advantages which are to be derived from this source, his fences (which are erected at considerable expense) are thrown down, his pastures made a common, and continual depredations made on his sheep and hogs.

It would be painful to prosecute any person for a trespass of this kind; but after this public notice, he is determined to proceed with the utmost rigor against any one who, in violation thereof, shall invade his property.
